

Reskilling

What is it? Who Needs It?

What is Reskilling?

Reskilling is a technique to analyze trends and connect them to company needs. Some employees may need job skills to meet the needs of the evolving workplace.

Why Reskilling?

Reskilling is key to a company's ability to keep up with trends and retain employees who are engaged and positive about their work.

Tip 1: Find Go-getters Eager to Learn

These employees are looking for challenges and new opportunities. Leverage this potential and let them inspire others to grow and develop in the company.

Tip 2: Look for Employees With Stellar Time Management

Employees that participate in reskilling programs need to be able to balance their existing responsibilities with the time and effort needed for reskilling.

Tip 3: Seek Workers Interested in Reskilling

Find employees who are actively interested in participation and growth. Choosing the right people as well as developing the right strategies for learning are a must.
